Story Time

Gil and Renée, are originally from Detroit, Michigan. Their relationship started out by a simple act of Renee rolling her pencil of her desk and Gil picking it up. They never knew such a small act would create a 37 year legacy of love.

Gil and Renée were only 21 when they happily committed to each other until death do us part. Gil retired from the Air Force and Renée is a former salon owner who has been an entrepreneur and now author for over 30 years. They have lived in over 13 cities throughout the United States and Germany.

They are proud parents to an amazing and talented daughter, Aharon (pronounced like Sharon, except with an A). They also adopted Renée's little sisters (Carmen and Monique) after a family tragedy. Today they each have loving families of their own.

This couple has helped many other couples establish new habits of love to strengthen their marriage. Gil & Renée's marriage relationship is providing tested relationship principles and a safe community. They are facilitators through the Prepare and Enrich Marriage program. Let's get empty of the pain from our past, unforgiveness, resentment, shame, and uncommunicated expectations.

Gil & Renée's 37-year relationship might mean they know what it takes to maintain and grow healthy relationships. They must understand love is a choice. Their 37 years together also provide evidence of something worth exploring and modeling. What is their secret, or are the answers hidden in plain sight?

Time To Dream

Rich Relationships podcast with Gil and Renée M. Beavers is amazing because it's the best place to really explore the reality of relationships — the good, the bad and the painful and confusing.

This podcast helps to illuminate what it means to be intimate with others and what it teaches people about them. It will make you want to strive for a kinder, more fun relationship with others. Many individuals don't have room in their heart, or life for people due to un-forgiveness, regret, shame, and un-communicated expectations.

Rich Relationships is an experience with principles to learn. There are tools to use with an emphasis on building, repairing, and restoring relationships with individuals, and family in a safe community environment that will stand in a world that's falling apart. We are Stronger together let's grow!

Rich Relationships Refuge LLP to Host a Relationship Bootcamp for Building Intimate Relationships

Relationship mentors, Gil and Renée Beavers, are helping singles and couples rediscover happiness, peace, and love.

TALLADEGA, AL// April 21-23, 2023 – Gil and Renée Beavers, a married couple for thirty-three years, are hosting a relationship readiness bootcamp in April through their relationship mentorship initiative, Rich Relationships Refuge LLP. After making waves with their latest appearance on House Hunters, HGTV, Gil and Renee are now ready to take their brand to the next level by launching the Rich Relationships Refuge Bootcamp for singles and couples on April 21 and 23, in Talladega, Alabama.

As relationship mentors for over seventeen years and married for over three decades, Gil and Renée are bringing a new approach to intimacy, helping individuals better understand themselves in order to establish a closer connection with their intimate partners. Their new book, "Rich Relationships Refuge Oneness Code Workbook," will reveal the tenets of a successful relationship by asking and answering the difficult questions, required to establish, mend, and restore a healthy relationship.

With the Bootcamp scheduled for April 21 and 23, in Talladega, Alabama, Gil and Renee promise attendees a special night of fun, laughter, and blissful experience. Through this overnight event, Gil and Renée believe that every couple and single will overcome the challenges in their relationships and marriages, as they have done, personally, for over thirty-seven years of friendship and love. What's more, they share their love for God and seek to provide the much-needed principles, resources, and a supportive community for people to grow and thrive.

About Rich Relationships Refuge

Gil and Renée established Rich Relationships Refuge to empower singles and couples who need help unpacking the pain of the past and uncover many preconceived notions associated with relationships. The power couple is dedicated to reigniting the spark in many relationships with the launch of Rich Relationships Refuge Bootcamp, creating a platform to share their seventeen years of relationship mentoring and thirty-three years of friendship and marriage with singles & couples.
